

IN THE CONVENTION.

THE CONSTITUTION PASSES SECOND READING.

Mr. Robertson favored the Attorney-General's amendment. The churches were worthy institutions. Some of them were very poor, especially native churches, and he would favor exempting their property from taxation.

Mr. Baldwin hoped the amendment of the Attorney-General would prevail. Most of the churches were poor. They did a good work, were helpful in maintaining order, and should be encouraged.

Mr. Waterhouse thought there was a "nigger in the fence." He had listened to the debate and had come to the conclusion that the proposition was a direct hit at Catholics. He would plead for his motion to table.

The motion to table carried. Mr. Hatch offered an amendment to substitute section 5, Article 53, to read as follows: "The senators shall be elected at the general election to be held on the last Wednesday of September, 1899, in three classes, to hold office for two, four and six years respectively, and thereafter for terms of six years, the details of such election and apportionment of terms shall be provided for by the Legislature."

Substitute article passed. Mr. Vivas offered the following as a new article: "No moneys shall be paid or appropriations made for pensions or annuities to the ex-royal family."

Mr. Allen thought the matter could be left to the Executive. The President replied that the Executive had no power to act in such matters.

Mr. Hatch hoped the amendment would not prevail, as it was worded, it would shut off the annuity to Kapiolani, and the Legislature could be trusted.

Amendment was lost. Mr. Smith offered the following amendment to section 23, Article 76: "All election laws in force when this constitution is promulgated are hereby repealed."

Mr. Baldwin offered the following resolution and moved its adoption: "Resolved, That there shall be but one more reading of the constitution and that for the purpose of revision only."

The convention then adjourned to meet Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. KAMEHAMEHA GRADUATE.

Closing Exercises of the School Last Night. The graduating exercises of Kamehameha School took place at Kawaiaho Church Thursday night. The edifice was crowded.

The decorations were very pretty and were tastefully arranged. On the rostrum was a handsome arrangement of ferns, palms and flowers. Falling in graceful loops from the pillars bordering the nave, intertwined flowers and vines were suspended. Over the platform, made of red flowers on a deep-green background, appeared the words: "Hew to the line and let the chips fly."

Many of the numbers of the program deserve special mention, but lack of space forbids full treatment. The music was very good and was loudly applauded.

The class of '94 numbers sixteen young men upon whom certificates were conferred. The graduates are as follows: John Samuel Aea, Charles William Bridges, George Humphreys Cummings, Levi Lemuel Joseph, Alfred Kahilalua, David Kaukaha Kanewani, Bonnie Lemson, William Miller Lindsay, Frederick William Maby, William Kuahine Makakoa, Job Kaeo Manase, Simeon Kabelemauna Nawan, Isiah Kukaiani Pahoe, Solomon Toyo, Thomas Treadway, William Ellis Wright.

THIRD DISTRICT CLUB. Election of Party Representatives Last Night.

The Third District Club held a meeting at the Drill Shed Thursday evening for the purpose of electing two members to represent the District in the Central Committee of the American Union Party. Messrs Wm. R. Sims and W. C. King were nominated. On motion nominations closed and the two candidates were unanimously elected.

The attention of the club was called to the fact that one member of its Executive Committee was delinquent in his duty to the organization, and had not even taken the oath required by the party. On motion and unanimous vote the office was declared vacant. Nominations being called for, the name of Julius Asche was proposed and he was elected. The meeting then adjourned.

PERSONAL. Dr. Ing returned by the Kinaiu this morning.

Mrs. Gartenberg left by the Hall today for a visit to Kona, Hawaii.

Miss Lewis left this morning for a visit to her father at Ola, Hawaii.

Minister Willis will receive at the Ewa Hotel on July 4th.

Mr. A. T. Atkinson, Inspector-General of Schools, returned from Maui on the Kinaiu.

Mr. C. L. Clement left for Maui this morning, where he will spend the Fourth.

Mr. J. S. Emerson, of the Survey Department, left by the Hall for a business trip to Hawaii.

H. H. Taylor and G. E. Boardman have been commissioned agents to take acknowledgements.

Dr. Armistead left for Waikuku by the Hall to assume the duties of Government physician at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston and Mr. W. N. Armstrong will leave for the volcano on Hawaii by the next Kinaiu.

Samuel McKeequo, who is suffering with rheumatism, will leave for the coast on the Monowai in the hope of improving his health.

Samuel Parker visited the Philadelphia again yesterday. He and Judge Wideman were on the vessel the previous day for two hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner entertained Mr. James, Mrs. Kohn and Miss Kohn of Portland last evening. Music was the chief feature of the hour.

HILO CORRESPONDENCE.

WILDER & CO.'S NEW STEAMSHIP AGENCY.

Petition for Road Through Hamakua—Social Events—Personal Notes—New Volcano Coach, Etc.

HILO, June 27.—Mr. Leo Cooper on his return from the volcano, at the request of several prominent citizens, gave one of his dramatic recitals at the court house, on June 26th. He was greeted by our best people here, who were delighted by the rendition of a splendid program.

Mr. A. G. Curtis, formerly book-keeper of Onomes Sugar Company, has erected a fine office between the post office and W. H. Holmes' store. He is agent for the Wilder Steamship Company. The front of the building has a very conspicuous view of Hilo Bay, and is of special merit. In the picture the barkentine Chas. F. Crocker and brig Larline are very noticeable. The steamer Kinaiu is seen coming around the point, and the general get up of the view is very satisfactory.

The cantata entitled "Under the Palms," the scriptural account of the captivity and release of the Israelites in Babylon, consisting of solos, duets, quartettes and choruses, will be rendered by the pupils of Hilo Boarding School on the 29th instant. As these boys have such an able leader and sing so beautifully, a fine treat is assured.

There has been a petition circulated by Mr. A. G. Curtis asking that the Government put the road in good order from Hilo to the end of Hamakua district, after the prisoners have finished the volcano road.

Church societies occur quite often and are usually enjoyed very much. There was one on the 19th in stant at the house of Mr. H. C. Austin, which was an extra good one.

There was a piano duet by Miss Sevanee and Miss Richardson, vocal solos by Mrs. H. C. Austin, Mr. Calendar and Mr. Hutchins, all of which were very pleasing. The refreshments served were greatly appreciated.

The Collector of Customs at Hilo, feeling happy over the thought that he had given satisfaction during the year that he had held the position, invited some of his most intimate friends to a bountiful repast. Accordingly the chosen few met at the Elite Restaurant, on Front street, on the 23d inst., and had a very pleasant time, long to be remembered.

The big new coach running on Volcano road is quite an institution. Hilo will feel like having a jubilee when the road to Volcano House is finished.

The resignation of Rev. Edward Payson Baker of Hilo Foreign Church was accepted by the congregation on Sunday, June 24th.

Hilo folk are glad to welcome home Dr. W. L. Moore and wife. They have been nearly a year on the island of Kauai.

Hon. D. H. Hitchcock returned to Hilo by the Kinaiu last Sunday, quite sick from liver difficulty which had been threatening him for some time.

The barkentine Chas. F. Crocker, Captain Land, left Hilo June 23d for San Francisco, with cargo of 24,345 bags sugar; weight, 3,063,780; value $83,998.54.

The brig Larline is expected to sail on the 30th inst., with a full cargo of sugar. O. B. J.

EXCURSION TO KAHULUI. Arrangements for the Fourth on Maui Complete.

Arrangements for an excursion from Honolulu to Kahului on the 4th of July, and for the appropriate observance of the day on Maui, are now complete.

The steamer Claudine, Captain Cameron, will leave Honolulu next Tuesday afternoon, July 31, at 5 o'clock, arriving at Kahului early on the morning of the 4th.

Returning passengers can leave Maalea Bay by 7 a. m. Thursday, July 5th, by the steamer W. G. Hall, arriving at Honolulu the afternoon of the same day. Tickets for the round trip are now on sale at the Wilder Steamship Company, and may be had for $8. The trip is made on two of the best boats in the island fleet.

The great attraction on Maui is of course, the race at Spreckelsville park at Kahului. This is the eighth annual meeting of the Maui Racing Association. Under the grand stand an elegant lunch and refreshments will be served by Mr. George Hons, whose ability as a caterer is well known. A trip bids fair to equal if not surpass the predecessors in point of solid entertainment.

MASS MEETING MONDAY. A Gathering to Ratify the New Republic's Constitution.

It is proposed to have at the drill shed Monday evening a grand mass meeting of supporters of the Government. The purpose of the gathering is to ratify the new constitution. A meeting to make arrangements for the event will be held at 5:30 to-day. The affair will be under the direction of representatives of these bodies: American Union Party, Annexation Club, American League, Schutzen Club.

Bill Authorizing Contracts. The bill introduced by Mr. Damon into the Council yesterday will vest the President with authority to make contracts with different steamship companies, with vessels plying between Honolulu and the American coast, giving free wharves, no port charges and coal storage up to 3000 tons. The Hon. Mr. Sutor of the Australian delegation to the Ottawa Trade Convention was apprised of the substance of this bill when here a few weeks ago.

Sports on the Fourth. Attention is called to the program of the Committee on Fourth of July Sports appearing elsewhere in this issue of the STAR. As will be observed, the sports will consist of both aquatic and field contests and amusements, complete in detail and well apportioned. This bids fair to rank with the best programs of the day.

A SUGGESTIVE DOCUMENT.

Letter Sent to the "Advertiser" by Minister Hatch.

The following suggestive letter appeared in Wednesday's Advertiser and will certainly read careful persons, in view of the well-known and somewhat extraordinary circumstances connected with the case:

DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS, HONOLULU, H. I., June 27, 1894.

Sir: The attention of the Government has been called to an editorial article which appeared in your paper of June 18th inst., commenting upon Her Britannic Majesty's Minister Resident.

A diplomatic officer is accredited to a government only, and has no right to have dealings of any nature with the people among whom he dwells, or any class of them, or to take any part in domestic politics. Any sort of communication with the enemies of the government with which he has established diplomatic relations, or with those plotting against it, would justify his immediate removal from the country. On the other hand the government near which he resides has the correlative duty of protecting such Minister and of shielding him from newspaper attack.

The tone of the article in question tends to hold this gentleman up to public ridicule and cannot be sanctioned by the Government. I have to ask, therefore, that you extend an apology to Major Wodehouse. I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient servant, FRANCIS M. HATCH, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

MR. HENRY N. CASTLE, Editor PACIFIC COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

HANGS ON A STICKER.

HOW EXILE HARDIN SKISS THE "ADVERTISER."

False Medals and Inflated Glory—Local Artists Took the "New Zealand" Photos.

The Advertiser of this morning devotes nearly two columns of its valuable space to an eulogy upon the life and adventures of Francis Leo, G. Harden.

In the center of this singular dissertation appears a cut of the exile purported to have been taken "four years ago when the festive youth was an honorary member of the New Zealand Artillery."

The Advertiser has "gone the whole hog" in good faith, but, unfortunately, has hung on one, at least, of the "stickers" which abound on every side of this "festive" young man.

To illustrate, an explanation of the origin and career of that "New Zealand" picture seems sufficient.

The photograph was not taken in New Zealand at all and not four years ago; but by Messrs. Severin and Bulster, artists of this city, and since Harden has been living here.

The Maltese cross, representing untold honors (?) achieved while in France, was made of ordinary yellow cardboard furnished by a little shop in this city and was cut out by the advertiser himself. The black inlaying was made with copying ink.

The princely medal appearing on the breast of the exile in the cut was one of those false, five dollar bills from the top of Messrs. E. O. Hall and Sons' advertising calendars.

The three-fingered sword was the property of Manuel Ross, of B. F. Ebers & Co., and was borrowed for the occasion.

The slick kid gloves held by the adventurer, in the picture, were borrowed from a Chinese shop keeper on Nuuanu near Hotel street.

In other words the picture is as much of a fraud in its representations as is the original a thoroughly unreliable crank, and as is the remainder of the queer story decidedly fishy.

WAIKAI CHURCH BURNED. Caught from a spark and Destroyed Thursday Morning.

The old stone church at Lahaina was completely destroyed by fire on Thursday.

The Fourth of July Committee had sent an old native man to clean up the yard, with a view to using the grounds for the exercises on Independence Day. The native had put fire to several heaps of trash in the yard, and the escaping sparks were swept by the winds upon the church.

In a few moments the flames started in the dome or tower of the building. The alarm was sent abroad and people rushed to the scene, to find the doors and windows of the edifice locked. When entrance was made through a window the building was doomed. Very little was saved. The costly furnishings and new organ recently presented by Mrs. Dominis were destroyed.

Waience church in Lahaina was one of the oldest as well as one of the largest edifices devoted to religious purposes in this country. It was built in the year 1828 and was dedicated in 1832, making it sixty-two years old. The loss to Lahaina and to Maui is a great one.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINIONS. A Member of the Schutzen Club Says They Will Petition Hereafter.

EDITOR STAR: We cannot quite agree with our friends in Convention—Too late does not apply. After the first reading was about the proper time to show up with objections if any. Several members of the Convention, supported in substance, the political creed of our resolutions.

However as we may come again under the head of amendments to the constitution, will make no further kick for the present. We also desire to see the new constitution peacefully promulgated and red hot politics allowed to cool off. By petition, in the future we shall expect to be heard.

SHUTZEN MEMBER. Williams Bros., at 609 and 611 King street have a full line of American bunting flags. Sizes from 6 feet to 30 feet.

Francis L. G. Harden is said to be concealing "Dolly" alias George Jones who is wanted for deserting the "Garnet" more than a year ago.

If you see the STAR anything, the end of the quarter is a good time to pay.

AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

On July 4th, the Republic will be proclaimed.

The new constitution and the Republic of Hawaii will be proclaimed from the steps of the Executive Building at 8 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth of July. Both the proclamation and the administration of the oath of office to President Dole will be carried out on lines of republican simplicity.

After the reading of the proclamation a thirty-six foot flag of the Republic of Hawaii will be raised on the main building and saluted by the shore battery.

The usual formal notices will be forwarded to the members of the diplomatic corps later in the day, after the establishment of the new Government.
